Blaze is a novel by American writer Stephen King, published under the pseudonym of Richard Bachman. King announced on his website that he "found it" in an attic. In fact (as mentioned in the afterword of Different Seasons) it was written before Carrie and King offered the original draft of the novel to his Doubleday publishers at the same time as 'Salem's Lot.

Blaze was published long after poor Richard Bachman's unexpected demise. The Forward, written by Stephen King, explains just how this novel went from a draft written by Bachman (and/or a much younger Stephen King) as a crime novel was eventually transformed into what we see in the published form.

Stephen King | Blaze

Richard Bachman is back from the dead with this suprisingly touching tale of high crime and low criminals. For those unaware, Bachman is a pen name that Stephen King secretly used long ago. The book is more Bachman than it is King, however, though

King does leave the occasional fingerprint. The novel is well written and well paced.
