Agency Book 4) (20) When she arrived at the library her co-workers had gathered around her desk, watching her with interest. "What's going on?" she asked.
"Nothing," her boss replied, her voice holding a hint of

Taiden. ONE. Daniella Flores glanced around the library she worked at and sighed.

She pushed her glasses above her head and scrubbed her eyes. Another boring day in the life of a librarian.

Stacks of romance books sat on her desk.

Swallowing back the hurt,
she unlocked the door, turned the knob and walked out of the room, ignoring both men calling out to her.
Bypassing one of the hallways she'd been escorted through, she opened up a set of French doors and rushed out into the night. Bright moonlight lit her path as she tried not to fall in her heels on her way to the front of the house.

I loved CURVES 'EM RIGHT
PARANORMAL DATING AGENCY!

Ms. Taiden is an exceptionally, talented author and this ability was why I had to keep turning each page; not willing to put the book down because it's a must read to the very end. Geri Wilder is brilliant at her job, that's why she owns the Paranormal Dating Agency.
